STATINTL

Dear Mrs. Louchheim:

I am pleased to submit the nomination of Miss [redacted]
[redacted] of this Agency for the 1969 Federal Woman's Award.

STATINTL

STATINTL

Miss [redacted] is recognized in the United States intelligence community as one of the top specialists on Vietnam and Southeast Asia. During more than eighteen years of service with the Central Intelligence Agency, she has demonstrated outstanding ability, dedication to duty and a deep sense of responsibility which redounds to the credit of this Agency and to the Federal Service. Her exceptional performance has earned her a senior position in the Central Intelligence Agency. I believe her contribution to the production of finished intelligence on South Vietnam and her perceptive analyses of developments in this area merit public recognition.

My thanks to you and to the members of the Board of Trustees for continuing this program to honor distinguished women in the Federal Government.

Sincerely,
